REPORT CHARGE

(Applies to Inter-State Calls Only)

It is sometimes impossible to establish conversations on persons' appointments and messenger calls, due to reasons beyond the control of the telephone company and although the preliminary work is properly performed, in such cases Conditions under which a report charge is made include:

1. Refusal of the called person to talk or an refusal to make the charges to be reversed;
2. Inability to reach the called or calling person after a reasonable point has been reached, or an appointment arranged for or
3. Inability on the part of the telephone company to locate the called person when it has been supplied by the

If, at the request of the calling party, attempts are made to reach the called party at more than one time, the attempt made at each city called will be allowed according to the call charge for a report charge.

UNSATISFACTORY SERVICE. Uniform courtery any politeness is an imperative rule of this Company, and all employees are required to be courteous and polite to all customers. If service is unsatisfactory, prompt report should be made by it of calling "Chief Operator." Do not report unsatisfactory service to the operators, as conversations by operators, beyond that necessary for completion of orders, repairs the service. Report of unsatisfactory service should be telephoned, not written, as more satisfactory investigation is possible when an immediate report is made to the Chief Operator.

MARY ANN had almost reached the end of the chapter when the telephone rang.
She finished in a hurry!
But naturally, the person calling had "hung up" when she answered.

It's a good idea always to answer the telephone promptly.

MRS. HENRY had to come all the way from the kitchen when the telephone rang.
But no one was on the line!
Probably the person calling “hung up” before she could answer.

It’s a good idea to wait a minute or so before abandoning a telephone call.
